TO THE READER.

IF the Catalogue, here presented, were only of Common Books, and such as were easie to be had, it would not have been very necessary to have Prefac'd any thing to the Reader: But since it appears in the World with two Circumstances, which no Auction in England (perhaps) ever had before; nor is it probable that the like should frequently happen again, it would seem an Oversight, if we should neglect to advertise the Reader of them. The first is, That it comprises the main part of the Library of that Famous Secretary William Cecil, Lord Burleigh: Which consider'd, must put it out of doubt, that these Books are excellent in their several kinds and well-chosen. The second is, That it contains a greater number of Rare Manuscripts than ever yet were offer'd together in this way, many of which are rendred the more valuable by being remark'd upon by the hand of the said great Man.

This Auction will begin on Monday the 21 day of November next, 1687. at the Sign of the Bear in Ave-Mary-Lane, near the West-end of St. Paul's Church, continuing day by day the first five days of every Week, till all the Books are sold, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen, &c. Buyers, do give in not only their Sir-Names, but Chriſtian, as alſo their Places of Abode, with the Signs the Live, or Lodge at, to the end that every Perſon may have Juſtice done him in the Buying, and in the Delivery; which new Condition is now propoſed, to prevent the Inconveniencies that have more or leſs hitherto attended the Undertakers, and alſo the Purchaſers, by reaſon that ſeveral Perſons, out of Vanity and Oſtentation, have appeared and bought, to the damage and diſappointment of the Parties they out-bid, and have not been ſo kind to their own Reputation, or juſt to the Proprietors, as to pay for and fetch them away.

IV. That the Money for the Book, or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are ſold, where conſtant attendance ſhall be given for that Month, Day by Day, from Nine of the Clock in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening, for Receipt of the Money, and Delivery of the Books.

V. The Books (for ſatisfaction of the Buyers) will be expoſed to view for one whole Week before the Sale, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six.

Catalogues are diſtributed at 6 d. per Book, from the Places mentioned on the Title Page; which Method we have now taken, by the direction of the Learned, for the better accommodation, and more prudent diſtribution than formerly of the Copies to them, &c. which ſix Pence ſhall be allowed (if demanded) to any Perſon or Perſons that ſhall buy, or cauſe to be bought for him or them, to the value of Ten Shillings in the enſuing Sale: Which being ſo reaſonable a Propoſal, we queſtion not but all Gentlemen, &c. will readily comply with it.
